Subject: Content verification and testification for the Cancer Guide in TNCSP's website.

To Whomsoever It May Concern,

I am writing this letter to acknowledge my review and input regarding the Cancer Guide prepared by the student members of the Tamil Nadu Cancer Statistics Project (TNCSP), which has been published on their website.

Based on my review, I am pleased to confirm that the content on the website is presented in a statistically sound manner, is well-organized, and designed to provide the general public with a clear and holistic understanding of cancer. The website provides a valuable overview of cancer, aiming to raise awareness and support informed decision-making.

I commend the efforts of the TNCSP student team in preparing this resource and trust that it will serve as a useful reference for individuals seeking a better understanding of cancer.
